RECAPITULATION.

Know-nothings and republicans voting for Banks	110
Republican know-nothings voting against Banks	8
National know-nothings voting for Fuller	35
Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr	80

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

PROSPECTUS OF THE.
North Carolina Christian Advocate.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, having determined to issue a weekly paper bearing the above name, the subscribers are authorized to issue this prospectus.

It is intended to publish a family newspaper, which, while it shall be religious in tone and sentiment, and maintain the doctrines and usages of the Methodist Church, shall be devoted to all the interests of North Carolina, and furnish intelligence for every class of readers.

In size and appearance the new periodical is to be equal to any of our church papers, while it will surpass them as in adaptedness to the wants of our people. The entire insufficiency of the existing "Advocates" to the necessity of our position, forces us to the publication of our own paper; and we confidently expect the hearty co-operation of the members of our church in all parts of the State and Conference, and hope to make the paper so interesting and instructive as to attract patronage from the public generally.

The "Advocate" will be published at $1 50 a year, and the first number will be issued as early as practicable after the next session of our Conference. It is believed that the publication will be commenced on the 1st of January, 1856. It is desirable that as large a subscription as possible be obtained before the Conference, and the ministers and all others interested in the enterprise are respectfully urged to secure and forward the names and address of subscribers, particular attention being paid to correctness in writing the names of persons, post offices and counties. Those who may have no opportunity of subscribing through the agency of our ministers, may write directly to Rev. Wm. E. Pell, Fayetteville, N. C. The payment will be expected upon the issue of the first number.

The location of the publishing office will be determined at the session of the Conference.

PANAMA IN 1855.—AN ACCOUNT OF THE PANAMA Railroad, of the Cities of Panama and Aspinwall, with Sketches of Life and character on the Isthmus. By Robert Tomes. With Illustrations, 16mo muslin.

The writer of this volume accompanied an invited party from New York to assist at the opening of the Panama Railroad. He has given a full and interesting account of that great industrial enterprise from its inception to its completion, with a graphic and instructive description of the romantic country, whose eastern and western shores are connected by the iron bands of the railroad. The sketches of a tropical climate, of the curious natural history of the Isthmus, and its peculiar social customs and habits, which are presented by the author in a style of unflagging animation and gayety, make his work one of the most attractive books of travel ever issued from the American press. The illustrations are from drawings made on the spot.

NOW READY,
SYDNEY SMITH'S LIFE AND LETTERS.

A Memoir of Reverend Sydney Smith By his Daughter, Lady Holland. With a Selection from his Letters, edited by Mrs. Austin 2 vols. 12mo., muslin.

THE LIFE OF A GREAT ORATOR.
Second Supply Now at Hand.

THE LIFE OF S. S. PRENTISS. Edited by his Brother, 2 vols. 12mo. $2 50.

"Next to Patrick Henry, S. S. Prentiss was the greatest natural orator that has appeared in this country. * * * * *. Dazling wit, keen sarcasm, apt illustrations, and brilliant figures of speech, poured in profusion from his lips—borne on a torrent of feeling which irresistibly carried away whatever audience he addressed. His habits were convivial; he was a prince of good-fellowship, full of fun and anecdote, and no one ever exceeded him in the grace with which he told a story." Buffalo Com.

"S. S. Prentiss is one of the most brilliant names which adorn our annals. * * *. The work is a valuable contribution to American literature, and its contents most strongly interest every admirer of true genius and genuine eloquence." Troy Times.

"His public career was a brilliant one. As a lawyer he was second to none of his profession in the Southwest, or, if success be the test of merit, in the land." Christian Mirror.

ARKANSAS, DALLAS COUNTY.

I OFFER FOR SALE 1780 ACRES OF LAND east of and adjoining the Ouachita river, consisting of upland and bottom—the former fair, the latter first rate, producing, under good cultivation, from sixty to eighty bushels of corn per acre, and from twelve hundred to two thousand pounds of cotton—upwards of four hundred acres cleared, with gin-house, orchard and houses for sixty negroes. It is healthy, well watered, and convenient to navigation. It is adapted to stock, being adjacent to forty thousand acres or more of wild or cane land, affording a lasting range for horses, cattle and hogs. In 1844, I bought this tract as the most desirable east of the Ouachita; nor is there any other, on the same side of the river, on which I would live: yet, on inferior land to my upland, there are planters from North Carolina making from six to nine bales to the hand—names can be given, if necessary. My price is $6,000 cash, or on time, with ten per cent. interest. Corn and provender and stock may be purchased with the place.

NOT DEAD!
THE "LIVE GIRAFFE" AGAIN.
A New Era about to Dawn on North Carolina.

At the constant and earnest solicitation of nearly every body, but especially the old acquaintances of "the Animal," we have been induced to promise, if "proceeds" enough can be secured, to trot that beast out again to the gaze of all mankind, and the universal admiration of womankind, during the first week in January, 1856.

"The Live Giraffe," while it was a neutral paper, while it grazed in its own green pasturage, played with the girls, and joked with the boys, was the most popular sheet, animate or inanimate, that ever issued from a Southern press; and had it been content to have lived in its own native sphere, it would now have been the "Brother Jonathan" of the South. Such a result cannot be evident to any thinking man; it was, indeed, on the high road to fame and a most enviable distinction. But becoming fat, in an unlucky moment, like the man who had grown "rich enough to ride an ass," and had, therefore, gotten above his fellows, the "Animal" leaped the bars of its accustomed field, and the next thing we heard of him, he, like a man turned politician from preacher, was pining for the good things of life, and no doubt, like the silly lamb of old that eluded the sight of the shepherd, and got into the thick woods which was found to be infested with wolves, he wished himself back in his old range. But the bars had been put another rail higher and he couldn't get back; besides, he had grown so lean that he could not jump.

It is said that bought wisdom is the best in the world, if it dont cost too much. A mighty true saying; one in which there is more of truth than poetry or romance, and in view of this old saying and the Animal's experience, his old friends need have little fear that he will at any time hereafter cut the same caper again. He'll kick any man that would intimate such a thing.

The Live Giraffe will then be neutral. It will be devoted to fun, to the news, and literature. It will be made the vehicle of publishing many a thought to the world; funny, grave and instructive, that would have wasted itself on the air "as summer roses do," but for its columns, it will seek every opportunity to turn grave and uninteresting matters into pleasant and agreeable incidents; upset all ill-natured humanity it meets with and mould it anew; expose all rascality wherever found, whether in Church or State—(that's promising a great deal,) or in the social circle, and keep a strict watch on the press, literary, religious and political, and see that each keeps its bounds.

The citizens of Raleigh know well enough the value of such a sheet, and would not do without it another year for half a million. Why, since the exit of the Animal from their borders, they have had more bad luck than was ever heard of before. More Trusts have been made, more liens been given upon property, more assignments made, more quarreling and fighting, more drinking of liquor, more meanness generally, and more ill luck than ever was known at any period since the great plague in Egypt.

Now this is as plain as daylight, and the only remedy for such evils is to trot out the Animal again. So I think.

Now, this is the proposition I shall make to you. I want an assurance of your willingness to patronize the Animal, and to get that assurance I shall give you full opportunity to correspond with me and to send in all the names that can be secured.

If 500 names can be secured, we shall have no fears of the success of the Animal. He will soon grow fat when he begins to take exercise, and then he can plead his own case, if not with eloquent words, at least with an occasional kick at the boys.

It has been intimated to me that the connection I sustained to the "Carolina Pennant" would injure the Animal since the "Pennant" had suddenly expired and left many of its subscribers in the suds. I have to say here, and I hope it will satisfy every body, that I had no interest in the "Pennant." I wrote most of its Editorials for which I should have received something according to agreement, but I did not. I have tried this co-business and it neither pays nor suits my genius. I want a broad hemisphere, a wide latitude, and nobody to divide with me in the spoils.

Then, friends, we now understand each other. I want you to send me your names between now and the first of January; if enough respond, the "Animal" will make his bow; if not, no harm done.

TERMS: Two dollars per annum, payable on delivery of first number; two dollars and fifty cents if paid in six months; three dollars if not paid till end of year. ☞ No money will be required until the first No. is issued. ☜

From the Fayetteville Carolinian.

An excellent opportunity is now presented to those gentlemen who kicked up such a hobbleshew in the Whig ranks in 52, because Mr. Fillmore failed to get the nomination at the hands of the Baltimore Convention, to return to their first love, and support this patriot and statesman in 1856. We trust they will find do difficulty in showing their faith by their works, The friends of Mr. Filmore will not only receive them into fellowship, but will promise not to reproach them for the past.—Argus.

Thank you, Mr. Argus, for your invitation to come back and your promise of forgiveness for past offences; but we 'can't quite come it.' When Mr. Fillmore was the Executive and administered the government for the whole American people, and executed the laws according to the constitution, he did not suit abolition allies, and you helped them throw him overboard. Now that you have tainted him—made him swear allegiance to a secret political faction and have made him the standard-bearer of the dark lantern society, he is, no doubt, the man for you, but he is no longer the Fillmore of 1852. When he was pure you would not have him: now you have corrupted him we do not want him.

We hear, to-day, the roar of your cannon, rejoicing over the nomination of Fillmore. Four years ago we heard the roar of the same cannon when the same Fillmore failed to get your nominated. Oh, consistency!

"Those gentlemen who kicked up such a hobbleshew in the whig ranks in 1852, because Mr. Fillmore failed to get the nomination," have gone into the great national constitutional party, with which party they will continue to act so long as democracy sustains its principles.

A WHIG OF 1852.

March 4th, '56.

Petty Annoyance.—It may not be generally known throughout the District, that the Hon. H. M. Shaw has been indicted and tried, in Martin County, on account of the affray between himself and Col. Paine at Hamilton during the canvass last summer. Such is even the fact. We are pleased to say, that a jury of his countrymen promptly acquitted him, at the Court held in that Country week before last.

We have no means of knowing the fact but we suspect that this was the work of some pitiful Know-Nothing, who skulked behind a Grand Jury in order to annoy a powerful opponent of his party. He has accomplished his object—he has been the means of dragging Dr. Shaw from Currituck to Martin County, to stand his trial—and his little soul is doubtless happy in the secret enjoyment of its glorious achievement. As a blind, he may have caused Col. Paine to be indicted also; but he knew that Col. P. was in Washington City, beyond the reach of Court—so he had a fine chance of indulging his noble spirit against Dr. Shaw, without annoying Col. P. We are authorized to offer a reward of one cent for the name of the author of the indictment.

VOICE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Democratic Meeting in Franklin.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the inflexible Democracy of Franklin County, met according to previous appointment in the Court House, on the 11th inst., Col. Isaac Winston was called to preside, and Menalcus Lankford was appointed Secretary.—The Chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting; and, on motion, the following gentlemen were appointed by the Chair a committee to prepare suitable resolutions for the meeting, to-wit: William F. Green, David W. Spivey, William D. Coppedge, Dr. Jos. P. Jenkins, and William P. Solomon, and while the committee were preparing resolutions, William A. Jenkins, Esq., of Warren, being present, was unanimously called for to address the meeting, which he did in an eloquent and enthusiastic manner, showing clearly that the Democratic party is the only national party, and the only party upon whose great principles the people of the country can rely. Mr. Jenkins painted in deep and glowing colors, the ridiculous abandonment of the 12th section of the K. N. platform, by certain portions of the so-called Americans of this State, and administered generally to the dark lantern order, a severe castigation, which it so richly deserves.

Our bold and talented county-man, Dr. Leonidas A. Jeffreys, was then loudly called for, who arose and congratulated the ever true and firm Democracy of Franklin upon the soundness of the principles of their party and their unyielding determination to adhere to the constitution of their country; and briefly concluded, for the want of time.

The committee, through their Chairman, W. F. Green, reported the following resolutions for the consideration of the meeting:

Whereas, The Democratic Executive Committee for the State have designated Raleigh as the place, and the 16th of April as the time, for holding a Convention to nominate a candidate for Governor; and whereas, the Democratic National Executive Committee have selected the first Monday in June next as the time for holding a Convention in the City of Cincinnati, to nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency; and whereas, it is necessary to nominate a candidate for Elector in the 4th Electoral District;

Resolved, That we approve the holding of the said Conventions at the times and places designated, and we recommend that the delegates who may be sent to Raleigh on the 16th April, to nominate a candidate for Governor, also elect delegates to the Cincinnati Convention, and nominate a candidate for Elector in the 4th Electoral District.

Resolved, That the Democratic party at the present time occupies a more enviable position than ever heretofore—the only national and conservative party that has a soul large enough to embrace the sacred interests and preserve inviolate the constitutional guaranties of every portion of the entire Union—that the fierce and insidious attacks it has met and successfully repelled, during the past four years, so far from shaking our confidence in the truth and justice of its principles, only prove to root them deeper and stronger in our hearts and affections.

Resolved, That we heartily approve the course of the Democratic members of this State in Congress in the late memorable contest for Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That the Democrats of Franklin cannot and will not vote for any man for the Presidency or Vice Presidency whose antecedents do not prove him national and conservative, true to the letter and spirit of the constitution—true to the Compromise of 1850—true to the doctrines of non-intervention upon the subject of slavery by Congress as set forth in the Kansas and Nebraska bill; and that we do scorn and detest any coalition with abolitionists, free-soilers and black republicans.

Resolved, That in our Chief Magistrate, Franklin Pierce, we recognise the able, trusted, and faithful statesman, an honest and determined patriot, true to the principles of the Baltimore platform of 1852, to the pledges of his inaugural address, and to the constitution of the Union, as more fully expounded in his late annual message to Congress; he has shown himself well worthy of that generous confidence, manifested by the overwhelming vote which placed him in the Presidential chair.

Resolved, That the wise and prudent administration of State affairs by our Chief Executive, for once has silenced the tongue of detraction and the murmurs of discontent, and that we cannot forbear recommending his name to the Convention for renomination, believing that North Carolina has no son who will bear the Democratic flag more gallantly and surely to victory than the Hon. Thomas Bragg.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Convention appoint five delegates from each Captain's District to represent this County in the Convention to be held in Raleigh on the 16th of April.

All of which were unanimously adopted.

In compliance with the last resolution the chairman appointed the following delegates:

Haysville District—John D. Hawkins, Phil. B. Hawkins, H. H. Hight, A. D. Fuller and D. Stone.

Dunn's District—John Griffin, John Bell, Jr., Wm. T. Harris, W. R. Hopkins, Rutherford Perry.

Davis' District—Wm. T. Spivey, William H. A. Harris, John R. Harris, Reuben Stallings, Wilson D. Webb.

On motion, the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list.

On motion, ordered that the Secretary transmit a copy of the proceedings of this meeting to the N. C. Standard, with a request to publish the same.

On motion, the meeting adjourned sine die.

Democratic Meeting in Granville.

At a meeting of a large number of the Democracy of Granville, on Tuesday of our Superior Court, on motion, Hon. A. W. Venable was appointed Chairman, and B. F. Hancock and J. A. Williams Secretaries. The Chairman on taking his seat, explained the object of the meeting, and spoke in some happy and eloquent strains, which cheered and animated his many hearers.

On motion, the Chairman appointed a committee of six to draft resolutions; thereupon, J. M. Stone, T. L. Hargrove, Jas. M. Bullock, T. Brown Venable, and Thomas Hester were appointed on said committee, and through their chairman, J. M. Stone, Esq., presented the following resolutions:

Whereas, From recent developments the citizens of the Southern States ought to be admonished that their safety, as well as the preservation of their institutions, depend upon united opposition to Northern fanaticism, and the concerted assaults upon all the rights secured to us by the constitution; we, the Democracy of the county of Granville, in convention assembled, invite all of our fellow-citizens to unite for this great purpose, forgetting mere questions of expediency, which have heretofore divided us, and employ our best energies for the resistance of the common foe. And, in order that our purpose may be fully understood, we do

Resolve, That we cordially co-operate with our fellow-citizens of every portion of the United States, who admit and sustain the guarantees of the constitution; and we repudiate all association with those who, either practically or theoretically, disregard the rights of the Southern States.

Resolved, That the altar of religious toleration erected in these United States, owes its construction not to Jews nor Catholics, nor to Protestants only, but to the united labors of all who sought here a refuge from trans-Atlantic domination; and the Democracy of Granville acknowledge no piety that is proscriptive—they recognize no patriotism that is uncivilized and exclusive, and want no Union that is not under the control of an operative constitution.

Resolved, That the Northern men who have uniformly sustained the constitutional rights of the South, are entitled to our admiration and gratitude.

Resolved, That the able and fearless exposition of the doctrines of the constitution contained in the messages of Franklin Pierce, entitle him to the confidence and admiration of every friend of constitutional liberty, who hopes for the perpetuation of our Union; and that so long as such doctrines shall control the legislation of Congress, no section of the Union will ever have occasion to seek concession or compromise; but the operations of our government will present a scene of prosperity, peace and happiness, which will challenge the admiration of the civilized world.

Resolved, That the repeal of the Missouri Compromise by the Kansas-Nebraska bill, removed from our statutes a legislative insult upon the South, and restored the equality of that portion of the Union which had been lost by its enactment.

Resolved, That when it shall become the settled policy of the federal government, that no more States recognizing slavery in their constitutions, shall be admitted into the Union, the Union itself will not be worth preserving.

Resolved, That we approve of the convention of the Democratic party, to be held in Cincinnati, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, and we hereby pledge ourselves to sustain the nominees of that convention, provided they be consistent Democrats and true to the rights of the States, and pledged to sustain the fugitive slave law and the rights of the South, as contained in the guarantees of the constitution; and we do hereby instruct our delegates to the said convention, neither to affiliate, assemble or co-operate with any known freesoiler or abolitionist, by whatever authority they may claim a seat in that convention.

Resolved, That we approve of the administration of the State government, by his Excellency Thomas Bragg, and cordially recommend him to the Democrats of North-Carolina as their candidate for re-election.

Resolved, That we approve of the convention of the Democratic party, to be held in Raleigh on the 16th day of April next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, appointing delegates to the Cincinnati convention, and electors for the State at large; and we hereby instruct our delegates to cooperate with the delegates from the various counties of this Congressional District, in selecting delegates to the Cincinnati convention for this District.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting do appoint six delegates from each Captain's District to represent us in said convention, and as many at large as the Chair shall choose.

J. M. Stone, on reading the resolutions, addressed the meeting in an earnest and entertaining manner, and gave utterance only to sound and patriotic sentiments. After Mr. Stone took his seat, W. A. Jenkins, Esq., of Warren, engaged the attention of all present in some well timed, spirited and eloquent remarks.

Democratic Meeting in Northampton.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Northampton, held in the Court House on Monday the 3d instant, Capt. J. M. S. Rogers was called to the Chair, and J. W. Boon was appointed Secretary. The Chairman explained the object of the meeting, when, on motion, a committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions. The following gentlemen were appointed the committee: Dr. W. S. Copeland, Gen. T. J. Person, T. G. Tucker, B. Moore, and L. W. Boykin, Esqrs., who, after retiring for a while, reported the following resolutions. Gen. Person and Mr. Edward Conigland addressed the meeting in short but stirring speeches, after which the resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That amidst the fusion and confusion of parties in the country, the Democratic party occupies an enviable position, and we, the Democrats of Northampton, feel proud of our connexion with it.

Resolved, That the Democratic party has ever been open and candid in the declaration of its principles, and has always held the same general principles in every section of the country; and while it has been frequently taunted and jeered as a party of platforms, it has, from time to time, adopted such platforms as have been sanctioned, sooner or later, by the American people.

Resolved, That it is a gratifying reflection to know that the principles and measures advocated by the Democratic party for a long series of years have, to a great extent, become the settled policy in the administration of our general government; and while new questions have been raised of recent date, in which the spirit of bigotry, intolerance and fanaticism, have maddened and ruled the hour, we look with confidence alone to the Democratic party to silence agitation, and restore that harmony and union necessary to the continued prosperity and welfare of our common country.

Resolved, That the question as to whether Congress has the right to interfere with slavery in the Territories of the United States, is the great question of the country; and we hold that this question can never be settled, with equal justice to all the States, upon any other basis than upon the principles embraced in the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and we pledge ourselves to abide by and support that bill.

Resolved, That we regard armed intervention in the affairs of the Territory of Kansas, by organized companies of hair-brained abolitionists, as a grievous wrong; violative of the rights of that people, and of the rest of this confederacy, and ought to be repelled, promptly and effectually, by every constitutional means in the power of those entrusted with the faithful execution of the laws.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the Democracy of Northampton, that religion should not be carried to the polls, nor politics to the church; and that a departure from this principle is calculated to arouse the wildest and most wicked passions of our nature, which, in their fury, destroy what is valuable of both.

Resolved, That we cordially approve the administration of Franklin Pierce; that he has shown himself to be an able, just, and patriotic statesman—that he has conducted our foreign relations with wisdom, discretion, and valor, and in our domestic affairs, he has stood faithfully by the constitution and laws of the country, regardless of abuse and defamation, and with an eye single alike to the rights and interests of every section.

Resolved, That our honored countyman, Thomas Bragg, has no more than fulfilled our high expectations of him as the Chief Magistrate of North-Carolina. We know the man; and to know him is a sufficient assurance of his ability and integrity to administer the affairs of the State with faithfulness and success. His untiring energy and application to business; his fixedness of purpose in all he undertakes; his excellent judgment, his high moral worth, and his dignified bearing as a man, render him peculiarly qualified for the high and responsible station which he holds. All we need say more, is, we have, and shall continue to delight to honor him, and to see him honored.

Resolved, That we concur in the proposition to hold a Democratic State Convention in the City of Raleigh, on the 16th of April next, and that the Chairman appoint 80 delegates to attend said convention, and add his own name and the name of the Secretary of this meeting to the list.

Resolved, That the delegates thus appointed stand also appointed to attend a District convention, at any place hereafter designated, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the National Democratic Convention to be held in Cincinnati next June.

The following is the list of delegates:

Thos. G. Tucker, John Pugh, Dr. Jno. M. Moore, Cyprian C. Daniel, Jos. Coker, Gen. Thos. J. Person, Wiley C. Coker, T. J. Harding, Wm. H. Garris, W. C. Jordan, Thos. Jordan, A. J. Jordan, Wm. M. Crocker, Dr. W. S. Copeland, Jno. E. Rogers, Jos. Rogers, Jno. Deberry, Jas. H. Deberry, Joshua Fleetwood, L. W. Smith, Jeremiah Daughtry, H. Spivey, S. Grant, M. W. Smallwood, Jas. H. Josey, Jesse Blanchard, Henry C. Edwards, Isaac Bain and Abram Stephens.

Democratic Meeting in Onslow.

In accordance with previous notice, on the 3d inst., the Democratic party of Onslow convened. On motion of Col. E. W. Fonvillle, Jno. A. Avirett, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Eli W. Sanders appointed Secretary. The Chairman, calling the meeting to order, announced its object to be the appointment of delegates to the Democratic State Convention, and urged upon the Democracy of old Onslow the paramount necessity of united action in the impending campaigns.

Upon motion, the Chair announced the following committee of five upon resolutions, to-wit: Messrs. Harvey Cox, E. W. Fonville, D. E. Sanderlin, O. B. Sanders, and James B. Avirett.

In the absence of the committee, Eli W. Hall, Esq., of New Hanover, and W. J. Houston, Esq., of Duplin, addressed the meeting in a very appropriate manner.

The committee upon resolutions appearing submitted through James B. Avirett, Esq., the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The duty of selecting some suitable person to fill the Gubernatorial Chair of this State will soon devolve upon the Democratic party, and reposing the most perfect confidence in its time-honored principles and hoping for the perpetuity of our country and her glorious institutions only through their development; therefore be it

Resolved, That the holding a State Convention at Raleigh on the 16th April, meets our most hearty approbation.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Convention be authorized to appoint forty delegates to said Convention.

Resolved, That Hon. Thomas Bragg, by his eminently patriotic and efficient course, has endeared himself to the Democracy of this County, and is the first choice of this Convention for re-election.

Resolved, That the tenets of the Democratic party, as laid down in the last Baltimore and State Conventions, are still and ever will be endorsed by the Democracy of Onslow.

Resolved, That President Pierce, in his last annual message, advanced purely Democratic doctrine, and that we believe it to be the only means, through which the ends aimed at by the founders of this country can possibly be attained.

Resolved, That the Democratic party has a dangerous, because secret enemy in the Know Nothing order, and that we ignore all political oath-bound societies as inimical to Republican institutions.

Resolved, That in the Hon. Thomas Ruffin, our worthy representative, we recognize an able exponent of our views upon all national affairs.

The Chair, under the 2d resolution, appointed the following delegates to the State Convention, viz:—Messrs. Jos. Ennett, Burgess Williams, Jesse Hardison, W. H. Batson, M. L. F. Redd, Ivey A. Rhodes, Henry Sanderlin, Ezekiel Philips, W. D. Humphrey, Stephen Dixon, Ivey Shepard, James Laughey, Dr. C. B. Whitehead, D. H. Rhodes, Dr. Chas. Duffey, James B. Avirett, Col. Lotte W. Fonville, John Pearson, Andrew Hurst, William Prevost, R. L. McClane, Seth Huggins, Chris. Stevens, Thos. Hollard, W. J. Gibson, Job Smith, Lemuel Henderson, and —— Henderson.

Democratic Meeting in Pitt.

The Democrats of Pitt county, by appointment, met in Convention on Tuesday the 4th inst., and upon motion, Dr. W. J. Blow was called to the Chair and James A. Brown appointed Secretary. The Chairman, in a few remarks, explained the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention at Raleigh in April next, and also the appointment of delegates to a District Convention for the purpose of selecting some person to represent this Congressional District in the Convention of the National Democracy at Cincinnati in June next.

The meeting having organized, Gen. Singeltary introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the result of the recent Know Nothing Sandhedrim in Philadelphia has narrowed down the political contest now going on to a struggle between the national Democracy and the black Republicans of the North; and that in this contest the people of the South ought without regard to former party distinctions to rally around the standard of Democracy, which alone is able to protect them from aggression and lead to victory.

Resolved, That the boldness and ability, and incorruptible integrity which have marked the course of the present administration in all its departments are entitled to the highest commendation, and though stormy times are ahead, we believe that the ship of State will be safe under the guidance of the gallant chieftain who now stands at the helm.

Resolved, That as Southern men and North Carolinians, our feelings and principles will be united in the support of the following ticket for the next Presidential election: For President, Franklin Pierce, For Vice President, James C. Dobbin.

OUR CITY FATHERS.

Messrs. Editors: Our large-hearted City Fathers after having duly performed all their small duties, such as putting the pumps, water-tanks, bridges and streets in excellent order, and paying all the City debts, to the great satisfaction of our citizens, have at last fairly arrived at the weightier matters of the law. The great business for which they were selected from the mass of their fellows is now fairly reached. The Board resolved itself into a grand Temperance Society, and decided that we shall no longer spree it by the glass-ful—which is a very picayune business—but that the universal world shall and ought to get gloriously drunk by the quart, in the good old constitutional way.

This great question having been settled, our excellent Board betook themselves with all due solemnity to the mighty task of enlarging the franchises of the free and independent electors of our burgh, and, collaterally, of curtailing the privileges of our town pigs. All porkers, both large and small, are summoned to come up to Jerusalem on the first of April to be taxed, even to the tender suckling of two months. Great, in consequence, will be the slaughter of young grunters before they arrive at that tender age; to save themselves the mortification of being taxed. But this is all as it should be. The dear little innocents will be taken out of this wicked world, before arriving at gross and disgusting swinehood. They will be kindly snatched away, "ere sin could blight or sorrow fade." Very likely, if cruelly suffered to live, they might not only be taxed, but become hogs, and wallow in all manner of filth. From this degradation the Ordinance happily saves them. Besides, the town wants funds to pay the large expenses incurred last year, and which will accrue during the present, in prosecuting those felonious gentlemen who contumaciously refuse to carouse by the quart, as enjoined. The cause was glorious—and neither hogs nor men should say aught against paying the piper.

But the crowning glory of our City Fathers is, that they have got up the usual periodical revival on the subject of impounding our very filthy and gluttonous swine. They, (namely, the swine,) ought by all means to be shut up at home. The good old Irish custom of the living all in the same house together, of cows, sheep and hogs, should be honored in the Ordinance. The new-fangled modern party which has been trying to Americanize every body, ought no longer to be tolerated among us. Let us be all free again, and be allowed to live together in peace, as we did in the "ould counthrie." Our City Fathers do well to force these Americon haythens back to the good old ways. They, (namely, the haythens,) would turn out the gentle cow on the cold charity of the world, instead of allowing her to share their firesides. They would not allow the frisky pig to curl his beautiful tail on the domestic hearth, but would expose him to the rude gaze of the public. Our considerate City Fathers have changed all this—to their credit be it spoken. Let them be firm in all their reforms. If the aristocracy will not voluntarily admit their cattle and pigs to share their domestic felicity, they ought not to have the blessing. Let the Ordinance be enforced on the ungrateful sinners on "All Fool's Day." The happiness of people and pigs would be greatly promoted. Also, let the reform be extended. The Ordinance requiring pigs to be penned or pounded, is wise and tasty to be sure, but not very original. It has been tried before, and with eminent success.—But finish the good work. Cows ought not to be allowed to perambulate our streets, pawing up dirt, and frightening the ladies by their hideous bellowings. Little niggers are also a nuisance; and they ought by no means to be permitted to show their bare legs, and play marbles on the side-walks of our Great City. It is very offensive and revolting. Let our authorities abate these nuisances and achieve immortality at once, by passing stringent ordinances against them on or before the "first of April next." This is a great age. We are a great people: and we ought to do great things.

PADDY O'WHACK.

Political Infatuation.—There is a notion very honestly entertained by many people, that a party name gives them an identity, which no times nor circumstances may change. Hence, we frequently hear those who are among our best and most intelligent citizens, talk in this wise: "I was born a whig, I will live a whig and will die a whig"—or any other party name, as the case may be. My dear sir, the Goose that struts about your yard, was born a Goose, will live a Goose and will die a Goose, from the very sternest necessity—the law of his nature.—But we cannot see the parallel when applied to the immortal mind of man.

Wil. Com.

A Race for the Crumbs of Jacksonism.—The negro sympathizers at Pittsburg called Jackson's editor of the old Globe to the chair, and the half-breeds at Philadelphia, not to be outdone in devotion to the memory of the Old Hero, headed off the Pittsburgers by nominating his private secretary for Vice President.

A beggar once called at a farm-house at hog-killing time and asked for something to eat. The old farmer, in the kindness of his soul, now enlarged by the plenty around him, asked the beggar what he would have? "Oh," replied he, "beggars should not be choosers—any of the offal, such as spare-ribs, sausages, and the like."

Ohio Statesman.

"The speeches were all about the Pope. If the leaders of this Order were half as much afraid of the Devil as they pretend to be of the Pope, they would be better men than they are, and would never again rejoice over the ashes and bones of women and children that they had murdered."

VOICE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

We surrender the greater portion of our space today to Correspondents and to the proceedings of Democratic meetings. We have on hand the proceedings in a number of Counties, which shall appear soon.

From Currituck to the remote West, and from Granville to Robeson, the most determined and enthusiastic spirit animates the Democracy. Union, numbers, and a good cause—we have all of these; and victory, under such circumstances, is as sure as any future event can be. Independent, high-minded Whigs, in all portions of the State, are either declining to commit themselves to the K. N. Philadelphia ticket, or are rallying boldly under the banner of the Democratic party, the only sound and reliable constitutional party in the counry. In this contest with the combined powers of bigotry, exclusiveness, and abolitionism, we welcome all such into our ranks. They come at the call of their country, to aid the Democracy in exterminating the dark-lanterns, in protecting Southern rights, and in perpetuating the blessed union of the States according to the Constitution.

The cordial manner in which the administration of Gov. BRAGG is approved, and the earnest calls made upon him to accept a nomination for re-election to the Executive chair, are most gratifying to his friends, and are in themselves the most impressive commendation of the man and of the Governor that could be expressed.

THE TRUE "FIRE OF THE FLINT."—The Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, who was defeated by Hon. Henry M. Fuller for Congress, on account of his devotion to the constitution and his vote for the Kansas-Nebraska bill, presided over the late Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania. On taking the chair he addressed the Convention in an able and eloquent manner; and during his remarks he enjoined it on the committee on resolutions to embody in their platform "the great principle of the age—of popular sovereignty—as embraced in the Kansas and Nebraska bill." This, says the report of his speech, was received with "terrific applause."

MR. CARUTHER'S LETTER.—The recent letter of Mr. Caruthers, of Missouri, to his constituents, is one of the ablest and most effective political papers we have read for many a day. We concur with the Washington Star, that "millions of copies of it should be scattered far and wide by his fellow members." It thoroughly exposes the character of Mr. Fuller, the K. N candidate for Speaker, and lays bare with a master's hand the enormities of Know Nothingism. Mr. Caruthers was recently a Whig.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Democrats have gained largely—some seven or eight thousand votes—since last year, but there is probably no election of Governor by the people. The present incumbent, Gov. Metcalf, is a Know Nothing and an abolitionist. The Legislature is K. N. and black Republican by a small majority; and the probability is, therefore, that Metcalf will be re-elected. We shall see whether Southern K. N's will exult over this result.

FOR KANSAS—WHO?—There was a Kansas meeting in Wilmington on Friday evening last, Thos. H. Ashe, Esq., in the Chair. The meeting was addressed by Hon. W. S. Ashe and J. S. James, Esq. It was determined to organize and equip a company to emigrate to Kansas, to be called the "Kansas Pioneers." The Journal says that at least ten were ready at the meeting to go.

We observe, by handbills posted about the streets, that there is a call for a Kansas meeting, to be held here to-night, the 18th.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.—The Democrats and anti-Know Nothings of Johnston held a meeting on Saturday last, the proceedings of which have been received. A friend writing from Smithfield, says: "It was the largest meeting I have ever witnessed here. Old and young Democrats from every part of the County were in attendance. Twenty-six joined the Democratic Association, and the most enthusiastic feeling pervades the whole Democracy. The K. N's of the County have "a hard road to travel."

☞ The last Washington (N. C.) Times contains a call upon "the Whigs of Beaufort" to attend a Fillmore and Donelson meeting in Washington on the 18th. Why, what have Whigs to do with a Know Nothing ticket? Is this an attempt to revive the old Whig organization, which Mr. Miller and other K. N. orators last summer pronounced "lame, blind, dead and rotten?" If the Whig party is to be revived, where is the Whig State Central Committee, appointed in 1854?

☞ We notice that Bishop Hughes has declined the invitation to deliver the valedictory sermon before the senior class at Chapel Hill at next commencement. We trust that Mr. Cameron, of the Fayetteville Argus—whose "pious soul has been vexed from day to day" about this matter—feels better now.—Our article with reference to this invitation to Bishop Hughes, has been grossly perverted by a portion of the K. N. press.

☞ We observe that some of the K. N. presses are complaining because the County Court of New Hanover thought proper to elect Democrats Naval Store and Timber Inspectors, in preference to Know Nothings. Are not Know Nothings sworn to proscribe Democrats, and to prefer their own men in every case, from Constables up to President? With what grace, then, can they complain when offices are not bestowed on them by Democrats?

☞ It is worthy of note that in the United States there are 3,900,000 Roman Catholics, whilst in the Senate and House of Representatives there is but one member each who even makes a profession of that faith. In the Cabinet, the Supreme Court of the United States, the Senate and the House, there is not a single foreign-born citizen. Surely, "Americans are ruling America."

☞ The abolition Legislature of Kansas organized at Topeka on the 4th instant. Governor Robinson advises, in his message, that no resistance be made to the alleged intended arrest, by the Federal authorities, of members of the Legislature and State officers for treason, until no hope be left but in revolution. The Legislature adjourned to Lawrence, where it was in session last. Governor Shannon had gone thither to ascertain the condition of things.—Violence was apprehended.

☞ We very cheerfully give place to the following article from the Wilmington Commercial:

"SPECIAL MAGISTRACY.—Some time ago, the Editor of the Standard intimated that we received pay for the duties of Special Magistrate, which we at that time performed. As our neighbors of the Herald and Journal have failed to notice this matter, we ask Mr. Holden to correct the error, in the belief that he will willingly do so.

Thus, then, it was. After an election it was discovered that we were technically ineligible.—No magistrate could be legally appointed for several months, and one session of the County Court was passed over without any attention to the matter.

In the mean time, we considered it due to those friends who had advanced our temporary promotion, and the public also, that there should no inconvenience arise, on account of a mistake on our part; and the many persons who voted for us. We therefore, performed the duties of Special Magistrate for six months, without receiving any pay, and without expecting or desiring any. The incident was of no pecuniary profit to us but was attended with some expense.

Our friend Holden will recollect, that so far as his knowledge of our history extends, we have acted on the maxim of our whole life, which is never to ask for office either in Church or State. It will hence be seen that we did not ask the Magistracy of New Hanover to elect us; and a friend of ours, a gentleman of the Bar announced to the Court that we were not a candidate in that position."

The Editor of the Commercial, having determined to stand by his country without regard to party, is incurring severe censure from some of the K. N's. But Mr. Loring knows how to estimate this censure, as well as how to perform his duty. He perceives that he can best protect the rights of his section, and do most for the Union according to the constitution, by ranging himself under the Democratic banner for the contest of 1856; and he has acted accordingly.

The Washington correspondent of the Savannah Georgian, of March 2d, says:

"As for Mr. Fillmore, he signalized his administration by pardoning two negro thieves, Drayton and Sears, who had formed and nearly consummated a deep laid conspiracy to carry off a number of slaves from the District of Columbia, and who were actually found on board of the vessel with them, making down the river to sea as fast as they could. How, with the knowledge of this fact, and the utter ignorance of Mr. Fillmore's views on the great question of the day—the principle of the Kansas-Nebraska bill—southern men could vote for his nomination for the Presidency, I cannot see.

"A singular event in connection with the nomination of Mr. Fillmore, is the adhesion of a prominent member of the Republican party to the American ticket. At the Fillmore and Donelson ratification meeting, held in this city on Friday night, Mr. Lewis D. Campbell was one of the speakers. He spoke from the same stand with southern Americans. He is Mr. Banks's leader in the House, being chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and is noted as the man who advised his constituents to trample the Fugitive Slave Law under foot. Events are thickening upon us to satisfy us of the entire sympathy between Abolitionism and Know Nothingism.

"I lean that Mr. Albert Pike, of Arkansas, is opposed to the whole action of the Convention, and will not support is nominees. He looks upon the abrogation of the twelfth section, and the adoption of the District of Columbia platform, as a concession to the North prejudicial to the South. This is the true view of it, and I think one that is having its effect upon the Southern Know Nothing members; as they are quite mum as to what they propose to do in the premises."

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I saw some time since in the Standard the weight of a hog from Granville. I will, therefore, give you the weight of five or six in Greene, all killed since the 1st of January last. P. B. Taylor, one weighing 682 pounds; John Lane, one weighing 559 pounds; Col. Lafayette Darden, one weighing 700 pounds; Dr. John. R. Derring, one weighing 700 pounds; Jas. P. Speight, one weighing 550 pounds; and W. H. Darden, one a little over two years old, 500 pounds. These hogs were killed all within the sound of a horn. Beat that, if you can, Granville, or any other County in the State. It is too inconvenient to bring our hogs to the Fair at Raleigh, or some of them would have been there at the last Fair. Elias Carr, of this County, killed ten some months since, that weighed 400 pounds each. These hogs are all of the native breed, and their owners are native Americans, but not of the modern order.

FLOAT HER OFF!—A veracious correspondent of the Boston Pilot declares that the following motion passed the Senate of Georgia on the reading of that portion of the message of the Governor of Ga., which referred to the anti-slavery resolution passed in the Vermont Assembly:

Resolved, That his Excellency President Pierce be requested to employ a sufficient number of able-bodied Irishmen to proceed to the State of Vermont, and to dig a ditch around the limits of the same, and to float "the thing" into the Atlantic.

Pretty good that.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Prof. Holloway had the honor of being presented to the Emperor of Russia, in 1853, and obtained permission for the sale of this extraordinary Ointment in Russia, in consequence of its great officacy in all Skin Diseases. It will cure Salt Rheum and Scrofula when all other means fail. Sold at the manufactories, No. 80 Maiden Lane, New-York, and No. 244 Strand, London; and by all druggists, at 25c., 62½c., and $1 per pot.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE STANDARD.

WASHINGTON, March 15, 1856.

The Enlistment difficulty—Final action not yet taken—Walker in Nicaragua—The Transit Company—Central American affairs—Two reports in the Senate from the Committee on Territories—The issue made for the Presidential contest—A State Constitution for Kansas—The sovereignty and equality of the States involved—Personal controversy in the Senate—Abolition morals—The Committee on Elections not sustained by the House—Republican Caucus.

When the enquiry was addressed to Lord Palmerston in the House of Parliament whether the English Ministry was willing to lay before that body the correspondence on the enlistment question between that and the American government, he replied that the correspondence was incomplete, that certain statements of facts contained in Mr. Marcy's last despatch, alluding to the despatch of December 28th, had been referred to the English Agents in this counrry for such explanations as they might be able to make, and that action was suspended until these explanations had been received. It is known here that the reference has been made to Mr. Crampton intimated above, and that his explanations have been already forwarded to London. This will account for the delay in making an answer to the demands of our government in connection with the enlistment question, and also explain the apparent hesitation on the part of our administration in taking final action with respect to Mr. Crampton and the offending Consuls.

Walker is pursuing a very decided and energetic course in Nicaragua, having followed up the formal extension of the sovereignty of that government over the Mosquito Territory, by taking possession of the small steamers of the Transit Company in Nicaragua, annulling their charter, and granting the same privileges to another Company. The secret of this matter is, that by the terms of its incorporation the Transit Company engaged to pay to Nicaragua so much per head for each passenger carried across its territory; that a large sum is now due, which the company has failed to pay, and consequently Walker has resorted to the only remedy in his power to enforce the rights of his government. It is a bold movement and will be very apt to accomplish the objects designed. The Transit Company being organized under a charter from Nicaragua, it does not become the duty of the government of the United States to insist upon its enforcement; the Company must rely entirely upon the good faith of the government from which their privileges were derived. From the first this company has been the active ally of Walker, and is, therefore, entitled to no especial consideration from our government.

It is difficult to obtain accurate or reliable information from Nicaragua, and it is impossible to say, therefore, what is the precise condition of its internal affairs, and the relations existing between it and the other Central American States. It has been said that the latter were organizing an alliance against the former, with the object of driving the foreign party, that is, Walker and his adherents, out of Nicaragua; but Walker has now so strong a force of Americans, desperate fighting men, that the mixed populations of these States with their imperfect military organizations, would offer a feeble opposition indeed, if an actual collision should occur. His troops are set down at fifteen hundred men, constantly augmented by emigrants from New York, New Orleans and San Francisco.

Two reports have been made from the Senate Committee on Territories upon the President's message on Kansas, the majority speaking through Judge Douglas, and the minority through Mr. Collamer, the Vermont Senator. The former is a very long and able report, approving entirely of the recommendations of the President, that a law be passed authorizing the Legislature of Kansas to provide for holding a Convention to frame a State Constitution, and that it be admitted as a State so soon as it shall possess the ratio of population to entitle it to one representative in Congress—that ratio being a little over ninety-three thousand. Mr. Collamer's report is a complete exposition of the views and aims of the black Republicans, receiving the endorsement of Mr. Sumner and Seward in open Senate, the latter embracing the opportunity to present the thanks of himself and of the friends of freedom in the Northern States for this defence of "freedom." The character of the report is sufficiently indicated by the character of the endorsement. The two reports fully make up the issue, whether new States shall be admitted into the Union on an equality with the old States—the immediate application of the principle being whether Kansas shall be admitted into the Union with such institutions as she may determine for herself. This is the issue the black Republicans design making in the Presidential contest.

Should authority be given for the formation of a State Constitution in Kansas, it is probable that such constitution will be entirely silent upon the question of slavery. This would deprive the abolitionists of all excuse for opposing its admission into the Union, or for attempting to amend the constitution by adding thereto something like the Wilmot Proviso or Missouri restriction—an attempt they will be pretty certain to make. Its silence on slavery cannot be construed as a disapproval thereof; slavery has never been established any where by municipal law; it does not exist now in a single Southern State by force of its formal establishment; but it stands on precisely the same footing as the right in any other property. Slavery would therefore exist in Kansas until the people in their sovereign capacity should provide for its abolition. But according to the signs of the times nothing less than a positive prohibition will satisfy the Republicans, and if the constitution of Kansas does not contain such a clause they claim for Congress the right to place it there—thus denying to Kansas admission into the Union as a co-equal State. In this issue is therefore involved the whole doctrine of the sovereignty and equality of the States.

An unusually sharp personal contest occurred in the Senate yesterday, between Judge Douglas and Mr. Trumbull, his colleague in the Senate, from Illinois. The latter claimed to be a Democrat, and that he represented the sentiments of the people of Illinois on the Nebraska bill, while his colleague, Judge Douglas, did not. It appeared however that he was not so confident about this matter as to accept Judge Douglas's proposition, that both should resign their seats and submit the matter to the people, whether the two Senators from Illinois should be Nebraska or anti-Nebraska men. Mr. Trumbull violated the understanding in the Senate, that the discussions of the two reports from the Committee on Territories should not be taken up until Monday, a resolution to print extra copies of the report being seized upon by him to make a speech, attacking the views expressed in the majority report. Mr. Douglas was absent at the time he commenced, but reached the Senate before he had concluded, when the former called attention to a similar trick two years since, Mr. Sumner and Mr. Chase going to Mr. Douglas and making a personal request that the consideration of the Nebraska bill, then just reported, should be postponed for a week, that they might have an opportunity to examine it; yet, prior to this request, they had signed an address, attacking the bill and Judge Douglas—thus showing that their object was to make the first impression upon the people and forestall public opinion. Mr. Trumbull had undertaken to perpetrate a similar trick. These are fair speciments of Abolition morals and of the "plighted faith" they delight to expatiate upon.

The discussion in the House, on the resolution to authorize the Committee on elections to send to Kansas for persons and papers, has damaged the Republicans a good deal. Yesterday they thought to bring the discussion to a close and pass the resolution, but the House would not sustain the previous question, so the subject will serve for hanging speeches on for some time longer, unless it be recommitted a second time to the Committee from which it was reported. The vote on sustaining the previous question was yeas 78, nays 96—a rather decisive indication of the opposition of the House to the views of the Committee. The majority of that Committee is Black Republican of the deepest dye; a majority of the House, it appears, cannot be brought fully up to an endorsement of its plans to carry out abolition schemes with a strong hand, regardless of law and right.

The circular, referred to in my last, as being signed by the Republican members of Congress opposed to Mr. Fillmore's nomination, resulted in a Republican caucus held in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Tuesday night last, for the purpose of consultation, it is presumed, and to consolidate and perfect the organization of that party. Of course, preparations for the Presidential election was the general object of the consultation. It was attended by a little over eighty members and Senators included, and was addressed by Wilson, Seward and others of that stripe, who shrieked for freedom in the most emphatic manner. It is said weekly meetings are to be held, to encourage the timid and strengthen the weak-hearted. Last night a meeting of the Fillmore and Donelson members was held at the Organ office, but the result of the consultation has not transpired. Perhaps the Organ needs some additional support, and this mode was adopted to bring its necessities to the attention of its friends.

MECKLENBURG.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15, 1856.

The gross mismanagement of our city finances may seemingly be a matter of little interest to your numerous readers, yet it is worthy of note, as a practical illustration of the manner in which the Know Nothing party manage public trusts when they happen to be in a majority. The municipal government of Philadelphia presents at this time an example of political incapacity and flagrant dishonesty which is disgraceful to that high character which her citizens are always boasting she maintains among her sister cities of the Union. The circumstances should be made known throughout the Union, that the honest and conscientous members of the secret order may learn how the self-styled "Americans rule America" upon a small scale, and thus be enabled to judge of what may be expected if the order succeed in getting into power by the election of their sworn "brother," Millard Fillmore, to the Presidency.

When Mayor Conrad came in power every office in the gift of the city, from the highest to the lowest, was promptly filled with "brothers." They also had a large majority in the select and common councils, and in the exultation of victory it was announced by some of the inexperienced members of the party, that Philadelphia had at last a model government which would give a glorious example of "native American rule." Prophetic words! but in a sense different from what the green ones expected. The results of the Know Nothing administration are now before us—an increase of one-third on the already onerous tax upon real estate, besides a new loan of nearly one million, three-fourths of which is to be applied to the payment of debts contracted since the order got possession of the city treasury. The salaries of the teachers of the public schools and of the police officers have been withheld for months, until themselves and families were in want of the common necessaries of life. Not many days ago a statement appeared in the Ledger that an active and meritorious police officer was indebted to the charity of a neighbor for sufficient food to keep his family from starvation. The claims of the numerous contractors and the laborers dependent upon them, were equally disregarded, while the moneys appropriated for the payment of these various claims were applied to other purposes by the city officials, who did not neglect to take care of number one. And why not? Are they not natives "to the manor born," and of course entitled to the fat of the land? City warrants, (or promises to pay,) though they are taken in payment of the new loan, are at from 6 to 8 per cent. discount, and not even cash at that, but part in trade.

The bonds of the wealthy and aristocratic City of Philadelphia are of dull sale at 91, while the United States bonds, in face of a threatened war with England, are eagerly sought after at 117; in solvency the securities are about equal. Whence the difference? The affairs of one are administered by officials who, as long as they obey the commands of the secret Council which rules the district, are certain of impunity, no matter how glaring their malfeasance may be. The other is governed by the known principles which have ever guided the Democratic party since the establishment of the Republic. The public funds, like the human pulse, is the criterion by which we must judge of the good or bad health of the body politic. Is it an unfair conclusion to draw from the above statement that similar results will follow if the national affairs are guided by the same party? If Millard Fillmore, as a sworn member of the "secret order," is bound to obey the behests of the "national council," (under the penalty of being denounced as a "perjured traitor,") will he not, if elected President, be like the ancient Doge of Venice, a mere puppet in the hands of a concealed and irresponsible council? In that case, it will be only necessary for us to have a "lion's mouth" placed upon the steps of the capitol, (where the best and worthiest citizens of the Union may be anonymously denounced and marked for future vengeance,) and we will have made one long stride in that system of government which makes the memory of the Venetian Republic be held in universal execration.

OBSERVER.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16—About half past 9 o'clock last night the Eerry boat New Jersey, while crossing the Delaware river to Camden, took fire in the middle of the stream, and, after great difficulty, in consequence of the floating ice, was run upon a bar opposite Arch street. About one hundred passengers were on board. Many jumped into the river and were rescued by boats, after clinging to floating ice. It is asserted that over 30 persons were drowned and burnt, but in the great confusion it was impossible to gather authentic information. The boat was burned to the water's edge.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 16—Nothing is yet definitely known as to the number that perished. The only bodies recovered are those of John Little, of Camden, who was drowned, and an elderly man, who was taken out alive but died soon after. Among the missing are Sallie Carman, an infant child of Sam'l Giverson of Philadelphia, Edward Meschamp, formerly a Conductor on the Camden and Amboy railroad, John Fidell of Camden, and a large number of colored persons. The boat belonged to the Philadelphia and Camden Ferry Company. The loss of life resulted from the boat being provided with neither boats nor life preservers. It is feared that the loss of life will reach 50. Many leaped into the water with their clothes on fire. Miss Carman was last seen with her clothing in a blaze. The coroner will commence his investigation in the morning.

THE FAYETTEVILLE FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL.—We are happy to hear of the remarkable prosperity of this favorite Institution. Its catalogue for the last Term showed 123 Students, and it commenced a new Term on Monday last with 120; and we learn that the number has since increased to 130.

Such success cannot but be highly gratifying to the projectors of the School and to its Faculty. Fayetteville Observer.

KENTUCKY AGAINST THE WORLD.—Mr. John Lawrence Bazier, in the Louisville Times, offers to bet from $5,000 to $30,000 that he can do as follows: Jump five feet further on a dead level than any man in Kentucky; three feet further than any man in the United States; one foot further than any man in the world; or that he can stand flat-footed upon the earth and leap a brick wall fiteen feet high and four feet thick.

SNOW AS A FERTIIZER.—The Chicago Journal thinks that the snow which has fallen this winter in that region is equal to five inches of manure; and infers that the wheat crop of this year will be the largest ever harvested in this country.

SCIENTIFIC LECTURES.—We were highly pleased last night with a lecture delivered in the Courthouse, by Prof. J. W. Taylor, on Geology. The Professor proposes, if sufficiently encouraged, to deliver a course of lectures here embracing the above subject, and other natural and kindred sciences. Sails. Watchman.

FOUNTAIN LAMPS AND OIL.—THIS IS THE cheapest and best light a family can use. It is not explosive, being a pure, fixed oil. It contains no camphine, turpentine, or any explosive mixture. In this respect it is fully warranted. Half a pint of Fountain Oil will burn, double wicks, giving a brilliant, smokeless, and steady light, twenty-four hours, or two and one-half hours for one cent! These lamps, once filled and trimmed, will burn six nights of four hours each without being refilled, saving the trouble of filling every night, as must be done with the common lamp. For sale by

DIED,

In Madison, Rockingham county, on the 27th February, Mr. Wm. F. Carter, after a brief illness, in the 30th year of his age, leaving a disconsolate widow and three small children, with a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their irreparable loss. How true it is "that in the midst of life we are in death." But a few days ago our departed friend was in our midst, in all the vigor of manhood, and in the possession of every thing that heart could desire or make life dear. The glow of health was on his cheek; the buoyancy of youth in his step, and joy and contentment beamed from his eye.

In the midst of a most lovely, interesting, and devoted little family, surrounded by many and dear friends, with the promise of a long and useful life, one would think surely such an one cannot die. But, alas! death is no respector of persons. The fell destroyer came, aimed indeed at a bright mark, and brought low his manly form to the cold and silent grave. A breach is made in that lovely little family—the light of joy is extinguished in that once too happy home—a young and fond heart is widowed and made desolate—a helpless offspring left fatherless, and a vacancy created in the social circle, of which he was ever the life, that can never be filled. Great indeed is the mystery of this dispensation of God's providence. But while we cannot unveil it, we would, at the same time, bow in humble submission to His will, and say, "It is the Lord, let Him do what seemeth to Him good."

The subject of this brief though imperfect notice, was born in the county of Davie in this State, in the month of March, 1826. In the year 1846 he graduated at the University of North-Carolina, a universal favorite with his fellow pupils, and much respected and beloved by the Faculty.—He afterwards studied law, and was admitted to the bar; but preferring a more quiet employment, and one more congenial to his tastes, he, after a year or two, abandoned the practice, devoted himself wholly to agriculture, and by his energy and industry soon acquired the reputation of being one of our most successful, intelligent, and influential farmers. Possessed of a clear, discriminating intellect, of great integrity and probity of character, of high social qualities, with a cheerfulness of disposition, and an equanimity of temper rarely witnessed, he won for himself the respect and esteem of all who knew him. From his youth up, in all the relations of life, he was exemplary. As a son, he was ever dutiful—as a husband and father, tender and affectionate—as a friend, firm and steadfast; and as a citizen, he never shrunk from duty or shunned a responsibility.

A few months before his death he professed faith in the Savior, and with characteristic energy, was entering upon the great work of his Master, when he was suddenly called away. His attack was at first so mild, that it gave his physicians and attending friends little or no uneasiness, till within twenty-four hours of his death, when it became so much more violent, as made it certain that he must die. When told of his situation, he manifested no alarm—did not seem to be so much as moved by the intelligence; but with a calmness and composure which could have been founded alone upon abiding faith in Christ, he expressed his unshaken confidence in a covenant-keeping God, his entire submission to his will, and spent the few moments left him in prayer and in exhortation to those around to make religion the business of their lives. Thus employed, he gently and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. While we fondly cherish his memory and weep over his grave, let us not forget that our loss is his eternal gain.

"God gave, he took, he will restore—
He doeth all things well." [COM.

In Alamance County, on the 4th inst., from the effects of a gun shot wound through the right hand, Mr. Atlas Jones. He died on his birthday, and had just completed his 20th year. He was highly esteemed, and has left many friends to mourn his loss. Cut off in the spring time of life, he has passed away to exist in a higher and better state forever. [COM.

DESIRABLE RESIDENCE FOR SALE.—The subscriber having sold out her other property with a view of leaving the State, offers for sale, privately, her residence in Oxford, N. C. The dwelling has two rooms below and above stairs, eighteen by twenty feet, an airy passage, two corresponding basement rooms, and is two stories high. The out-houses consist of a large kitchen, smoke-house, dairy, and a very commodious stable, and there are six acres of land in the lot, all under plank enclosure, and one acre substantially paled in for a garden.—All of these buildings and improvements are entirely new, having been completed within the last twelve months, and occupy a most desirable location in the flourishing town of Oxford, and would be the exact thing for a gentleman from down the country desiring a healthy summer residence for his family; and besides the proverbial salubriousness of this region, this particular locality combines extraordinary educational advantages. The Baptist Female College, situated at this place, is one of the largest and most popular institutions of the kind in the State, besides another deservedly popular academy for young ladies; and the North-Carolina Masonic College is now in course of construction in this place, and will go into operation in the next year; besides an academy of high grade for boys, now in most successful operation, under the charge of one of the most popular teachers in the State.

This property will be sold on most accommodating terms as to payment, and for less money than it would cost to rear the buildings. Address Dr. Z. M. Paschall, Oxford, N. C., or Wm. Baskerville, Jr., Lombardy Grove, Mecklenburg Co., Virginia, either of whom are fully authorized to act in the premises.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE, Nov. 22, 1855.

To whom it may concern:

Mr. L. H. PENNY, while a member of this institution, had a fair standing in all his studies. He conducted himself in all respects, so far as I know or believe, in the most unexceptionable manner, both as a gentleman and a student, and enjoys the unqualified approbation of the Faculty of the College. I take great pleasure in recommending him to public favor. I think he will do well as a teacher of a Classical School, and am confident that he may be relied on for any service to which he may commend himself.

PROSPECTUS OF "THE WESTERN SENTINEL,"

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

SOLICITED BY MANY CITIZENS OF FORSYTH and surrounding Counties, the undersigned proposes to publish, in the town of Winston, North Carolina, a Weekly Newspaper under the above title.

The increasing public interests of our section, and of Western Carolina generally; the enlarged appreciation of the reading public; and the demand for a local journal at the seat of our County government, seem to favor the establishment at Winston of a journal of the character proposed.

The "SENTINEL" will be devoted to Morality, Pure Literature, Republican Principles, General Intelligence, and all the interests of the people. It will be the aim of the publisher to render it a repository of pleasing and profitable reading, a faithful record of events, and an agreeable companion to the Home Circle.

In matters of public policy, both National and State, it will yield an unwavering support to Democratic measures, and a zealous advocacy of the Democratic cause; sustaining to the height of its ability the principles of the Baltimore Democratic platform of 1852, as agreed upon by the Party, and sanctioned by a large majority of the American People.

Against the recently organized "Know Nothing," or "Native American" movement, the Sentinel will take decided and unequivocal ground; regarding the creation of a religious test as qualification for public office, at variance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution, opposed to every principle of Republicanism, and worthy only the ignorance and intolerance of a darker age. Acting from a firm conviction that honesty, capability, and fidelity to the Constitution, (aside from political principle,) are sufficient requisites in candidates for office under a Republican form of government, we shall oppose any organization, whether secret or open, that seeks to create a barrier between the native and adopted citizen, or to deprive either of the rights and privileges enjoyed under the Constitution and Laws, as they stand. In short, our position and sentiment upon this subject will be: PRINCIPLES—not birth-place; MEASURES—not men.

The paper will be devotedly attached to the Union of the States, while maintaining a jealous guardianship of their individual rights: advocating as the only guarantee of the perpetuity of the Union, a strict and faithful adherence, under all circumstances, to the Federal Constitution.

With the increased mail facilities afforded by the completion of the North Carolina Railroad, and the advantages of a daily arrival, the Sentinel will contain the latest and most reliable intelligence.

Especial care and attention will be bestowed upon the Editorial Department; and with the assistance of intelligent correspondents, it is hoped that the original portion of the publication may form a pleasing and attractive feature.

While the tone of the "Sentinel" upon all subjects, will be fearless and independent, its columns will be entirely free from the low slang and billingsgate rhetoric so conspicuous in some of the political journals of the day.

The first number will be issued in the month of April next.

The "Sentinel" will be printed weekly, from new type, on a large sheet, at the price of Two Dollars per year, in advance; two dollars and a half after six months, or three dollars after the close of the subscription year. To any one procuring ten subscribers, and paying the cash in advance, the paper will be furnished one year, gratis.

December 16, 1855. 9—

Prospectus of the "Southern Sentinel,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be Published Weekly, at Wilson, N. C.

THE EXISTING CONDITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "SOUTHERN SENTINEL" purposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed before. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed; ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to howl among us in the South. These evils, so far as its humble abilities shall serve, will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political, but RELIGIOUS liberty, and will do battle against every political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL

The SENTINEL will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects, which shall include Agricultural and the latest Commercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South.

The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to subscribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year. Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies.

NOTICE.—A NEGRO MAN WHO CALLS HIMSELF WM. CURTIS, was committed to the jail of this city in December last, for want of a copy of his Registry. He says that he is free, that he was raised, as he believes, in the county of Orange or Granville, in the State of North Carolina, by an old gentleman named Thomas Jordan, (a Scotchman,) whom, he says, gave him his free papers. He left there about twenty years ago for the State of Georgia with Mr. John Tuttle, a Railroad Contractor, and has not resided in N. C. since that time. He is about 41 or 42 years of age, black complexion, five feet 7½ inches in height, tolerably likely, has small whiskers, and is ruptured. He gives such a lame account of himself that the Hustings Court of this city authorized me to advertise him, thinking it probable that he may be a runaway slave. Any person who may see this notice, and knows any thing about the above named man, will please give me the information.

A HUMOROUS VOLUME.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

"A Basket of Chips" is a somewhat unpromising repast to ask any one to participate in, to be sure, and the unsavoriness of the name will, no doubt, be eagerly laid hold of by some of the critics. Perhaps it might be as well, in explanation of the title, to say that the random sketches contained in this volume are but the sawdust and shavings accumulated during intervals of more laborious carpentry.

INSANE ASYLUM.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT APARTments are now ready for the reception of 40 patients, in the Asylum.

Those who have charge of the insane, and desire to place them in the institution, will apply to the Physician and Superintendent, E. C. Fisher, at Raleigh, before bringing the patient to the institution.

The Board of Directors refer to the 6th chapter, 17th section (page 86) of Revised Code, for the legal requirements necessary to be complied with, in order to ensure admission of State (or indigent) patients.

Life Preserving Patent Swingletree.

THE SUBSCRIBERS HAVING PURCHASED THE sole right to make and sell these Swingletrees, in the counties of Wake, Johnston, Chatham, Orange, Franklin, Warren and Nash, would respectfully inform the public that they will attend the Courts in the above counties with them, and will also peddle them through the country.

By this Swingletree, a horse, or two or more horses, can be detached from a vehicle when at full speed, with perfect safety to the vehicle and those in it. It is simple and easy, so that any boy ten years old can avail himself of its use.—No such protection has ever before been invented against the dangers incident to run-away or fractious horses. Every riding vehicle ought to have one attached to it. It is a cheap, safe and certain protection against danger. It can be attached to old or new vehicles.

☞ Notice is hereby given, that any infringement on this Patent, or any imitation, or attempt to make or use by any modification, this Patent Swingletree in any of the counties above enumerated, the persons or persons so offending will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, in the U. S. Courts at Washington.

TO THE TURPENTINE MAKERS OF N. & S. CAROLINA.—The subscribers having taken the premium at the late State Fair upon turpentine tools, (chippers, roundshaves and hackers,) would announce to the public that they are manufacturing these tools extensively.
